

2013 Summer Leadership Institute for Teachers and Administrators

June 3-5, 2013
JSU Student Life Center
Jackson State University
1400 J.R. Lynch Street
Jackson, MS 39217

The College of Education and Human Development will host its 2013 Summer Leadership Institute for Teachers and Administrators. The institute will be held on the beautiful JSU campus and institute sessions will be led by state and national professionals. The purpose of the institute is to provide the professional expertise, opportunities, and training for educators that will increase their ability to put the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) into practice and establish effective norms of practice in classrooms.

New This Year!

1. Continental breakfast, snacks, and one luncheon meal provided. Lunch on your own in restaurants in the Student Life Center. (Penguin, Chick-fil-A, Pizza Hut, MS Kitchen, Payton Place, and Bistro 1877)
2. Included with registration are: USB flash drive that contains conference materials, instructional booklets, and JSU insignia items.
3. Resolution Time: Designated time to respond to questions from the registration form.
4. A network for teachers will be created for CCSS implementation and strategy reviews.
